

Koushik Radhakrishnan

Vice President and General Manager, Asia

Koushik Radhakrishnan is Vice President and General Manager for DXC Technology's (NYSE: DXC) Asia Region, where he is responsible for driving DXC's market and business growth, and coordinating all operations in the region.

Prior to this, he was the Director for Regional Service Delivery in Asia, Middle East & Africa with overall responsibility for service delivery, helping to oversee revenue and profit for the delivery team in areas such as Applications, Infrastructure, Cloud, Cyber Security and Analytics. Koushik held a similar role at Computer Sciences Corporation (CSC) – which merged with Hewlett Packard's Enterprise Services business to create DXC Technology in April 2017.

He has diverse market experience in North America, Europe, Japan, China and Singapore and his strength lies in managing turnarounds and complex deliveries from P&L, solutioning and execution, plus large complex applications and infrastructure outsourcing.

Koushik holds a Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Science and Engineering from the University of Madras, India and is a Certified Outsourcing Manager for IT (COMIT) by Singapore Computer Society; a Certified Professional Risk Manager (CPRM) by the Asia Risk Management Institute, a Project Management Professional (PMP) by the Project Management Institute, and a Certified Analytics & Enterprise Data Warehouse consultant.
