

Navranjan Khanna

Regional Director, Supply Chain, Asia

As Regional Director of Supply Chain, Navranjan has overall responsibility for the protocols, procedures and strategy of the Asia supply chain team at DXC Technology, where he is tasked with managing the speed, efficiency and resources to improve the company's overall revenue and costs performance.

He joined DXC in January 2018 from Microsoft where he served as Director, Finance Operations (Payroll) for Asia, Middle East and Africa, leading the payroll operations through internal and outsourced teams across 33 countries. Prior to this, he was the Procurement Lead for APAC region & India, managing the procurement organization on analytical spending and indirect sourcing.

Navranjan is an experienced professional with over 25 years of diverse experience in the field of Finance (Shared Services), Contracting and Supply Chain. He has led multiple projects across verticals, built Supply Chain departments including policies, processes, talent acquisition and operational excellence. He has streamlined logistics function of a BPO and managed procurement compliances of Microsoft on a global basis.

He holds a CMA degree from Institute of Costs Accountants of India and Bachelor of Laws from Kurukshetra University, India. He is also member of Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply (CIPS), UK and Institute of Public Accountants (IPA), Australia.