

Paul Lanzone

Director, Legal, Asia & Transactions, Governance and Technology

Paul Lanzone leads the Asia legal team as well as Transactions, Governance and Technology at DXC Technology. Prior to this, he was VP, Associate General Counsel for HP Enterprise Services in Asia Pacific & Japan.

Paul joined EDS, an HP company, in the UK in 2009 as a senior lawyer specializing in large outsourcing deals. He led the large deal team working on complex ITO deals and matters across Europe, Middle East & Africa. EDS was renamed HP Enterprise Services and subsequently Paul moved to Australia to take on the role of Managing Counsel for Australia & New Zealand.

These roles built on his experience as Executive Director, Global Head of Legal Projects and Information Technology for UBS Investment Bank in London where he was responsible for the timely and efficient delivery of all legal projects for the bank.

Having practiced information technology law for over 19 years, both in-house and within private practice, Paul has held senior legal positions at Baker & McKenzie, Pinsent Masons and Virgin Mobile Australia. He has dealt with a range of large customer and supplier IT agreements and related advice.

Paul has taught law at several universities including LLM in IT. He holds a B.A/LLB, and a B.Com and is currently studying for his own LLM in IT.
