

Prakash Mathew Thomas

Industry General Manager – Insurance, Asia

In his role as Industry General Manager- Insurance, Asia, Prakash has overall responsibility for the Insurance vertical in the region. Prakash held a similar role at Computer Sciences Corporation (CSC) – which merged with Hewlett Packard's Enterprise Services business to create DXC Technology in April 2017.

He joined CSC in 2006 and has held roles of Vice President- Sales & Marketing - Financial Services (Asia) and General Manager for Global Business Solutions(GBS), AMEA before taking on the present role in 2015.

Prakash has 25+ years of progressive experience in the Information Technology and Services Industry around Financial Services and Commercial Industries in Asia Pacific and Middle East covering Sales, Sales Management, Consulting Services and Practice Management. Prior to CSC, Prakash was with Unisys for 12 years which included a 5-year tenure in Middle East and 7 years on a regional role in Asia Pacific.

Prakash holds a Doctor of Business Administration degree from University of South Australia; MBA from University of Nottingham, UK and Bachelor of Technology degree in Electrical Engineering from National Institute of Technology, Warangal, India.