

Raising the ERP benchmark.

In today's hyper-competitive global marketplace, businesses must be lean and agile. Accurate business information in real-time, strong project management governance and process efficiency are imperative. That's why so many global organisations use Oracle® JD Edwards' enterprise resource planning (ERP) system.

It's also why businesses seeking competitive advantage engage Red Rock's JD Edwards Centre of Excellence (JDE CoE) to extract maximum value from their JD Edwards ERP resources.

About Oracle JD Edwards

Oracle’s JD Edwards is Asia Pacific’s leading ERP system. The software enables your organisation to accurately and efficiently manage everything, from asset lifecycle and project management, through to manufacturing, distribution and order management. And now that it’s available on Oracle Cloud, you can support organisation-wide growth, agility and innovation with market-leading ERP capabilities more cost effectively than ever.

What is Red Rock’s JD Edwards Centre of Excellence?

At Red Rock, we’ve firmly established ourselves as the Oracle Partner of choice in Asia Pacific by continually developing our Oracle sales-to-support capabilities and our 650+ team of Oracle specialists to meet the changing needs of more than 180 clients across the region. International partnerships allow the IP, tools and expertise to be leveraged globally, servicing all clients locally. Our JD Edwards Centre of Excellence is a natural extension of this philosophy.

Pan-Asia Pacific JDE CoE support network

On-the-ground JDE CoE teams and partners

Blended onshore/offshore and near shore teams

Local regulatory, market and industry experience

Multilingual teams, conversant with all releases

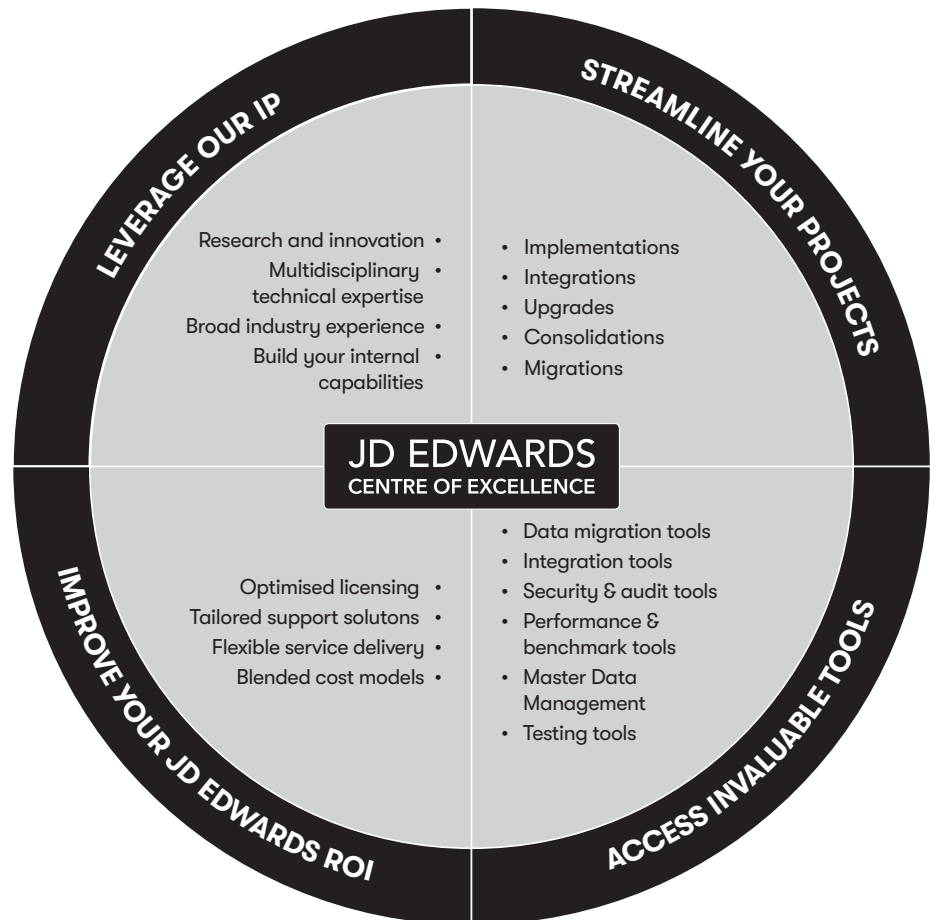

24/7 access to tailored support, tools and services

“The collaboration and communication between teams was exemplary. Milestones were met and executed excellently, all the way through to local JDE support post implementation. It was a pleasure to see how much the team applied and lived by our Froneri Group model; well beyond JD Edwards.”
