Turn licensing management into a cost-saving advantage with DXC Red Rock.

Strategic Licensing Services.

On the surface, minimising your licensing footprint and streamlining licensing management is about reducing your costs, compliance risks and administrative burden. It's about giving you more time and budget to use technology to innovate. But at Red Rock, it's also about drawing on our 24+ years of Oracle® licensing expertise and tapping into our Oracle partner relationships to give you a strategic software asset management (SAM) edge.

Our licensing specialists provide complete licensing management and optimisation solutions and strategies that go beyond minimising your licensing footprint and maintaining full audit-readiness.

The solutions and support we deliver will provide the licensing clarity, frameworks and confidence you need to make better SAM decisions and equip your organisation for the future.

Oracle partnership benefits

As the region's leading Oracle partner, we have access to exclusive resources that enable us to devise licensing solutions that are unmatched in their flexibility and cost efficiency.

Take advantage of our ability to deliver:

- Software optimisation. Minimise costs, waste and future spend.

- Hardware optimisation. Optimise hardware capacity and costs.

- Functionality optimisation. Scrap redundant functionality.

- Commercial optimisation. Secure better discounts with vendors.

Navigate Oracle's licensing protocols with confidence

In a sample of 400 Oracle licensing audits, over 89% of sampled organisations were over-licensed, under-licensed or licensed expensively, which is why our Oracle Licence Optimisation and Audit Defence service forms the foundation of our licensing suite.

It's a 360° review of your Oracle licence architecture and environment that not only ensures legal compliance, but provides strategies for simplified licensing management.

Review your Oracle environment.	Review your licence architecture.	Ensure legal compliance.	Simplify licensing management.	Optimise deployments.

A licensing model and strategy that works for you

Every Oracle environment is unique, so allow our licensing specialists to proactively structure your licensing model to meet your unique operational and strategic requirements, minimising costs, risk and time-intensive administration.

Ongoing support and value

Some clients engage our strategic licensing services during times of licensing stress, but licensing is an ongoing challenge, so it's the clients that work with our specialists on an ongoing basis that gain the most value.

Ask us about how we can save you time and money, year in year out, not least through our vendor-agnostic Software Asset Management as a Service (SAMaaS) solution.

Software Asset Management

Did you know our software asset management (SAM) expertise extends beyond Oracle's products?

In fact, we're the Software Asset Management as a Service (SAMaaS) partner of choice for a growing number of clients with multi-vendor software suites.

- Vendor-agnostic SAM.
- Backed by DXC's global SAM capabilities.
- Proven SAM expertise and SAMaaS solutions deployed worldwide.

Our cost-neutral guarantee

We even guarantee that the SAM savings we identify will be equal to, or greater than, the cost of our solution. Ask us for details.
