DXC Continuing Professional Development

Continuing professional development for Cornerstone OnDemand

Automate continuing education tracking in Cornerstone.

Benefits

- Simplify and automate continuing education tracking

- Integrate requirements and rules right into Cornerstone OnDemand's learning management software

Customers in highly regulated industries such as legal, finance and healthcare can seamlessly integrate their continuing education (CE) tracking with their learning management software, eliminating duplicate processes and simplifying reporting.

With DXC Continuing Professional Development (CPD), learning administrators can automate CE tracking via a solution designed to handle a myriad of requirements and intricate rules — giving them confidence and letting their learning populations have visibility into progress and completion.

DXC CPD bridges the gap between Cornerstone Learning and CE tracking — enhancing your primary platform investments and allowing you to organize and natively track courses from Cornerstone.

Integrate with Cornerstone and see it all at a glance:

- Enter learning objects from Cornerstone.

- Track objects based on various data points.

- See all training applicable to each user's certification or membership.

Deliver training, track certification and membership progress:

- Track users based on any kind of demographic or personal data.

- Track when a user completes actions on every learning object.

- Store user elements in default or custom fields in Cornerstone.

- Populate data through feeds or direct manual updates.

- Gauge progress toward certifications or membership completion based on training taken to date.
