

Optimize customer and employee experiences

Personalize interactions, foster collaboration and simplify transactions with custom software

Provide branded, personalized customer experiences

Deliver a consistent brand experience with every interaction.

Prioritize customer convenience across all channels.

Use data to better understand customer preferences and predict future behaviors.

Foster proactive, collaborative relationships with customers

Offer lines of communication across channels.

Deliver situationally relevant information to employees.

Use internet of things to monitor usage and offer proactive services.

Reduce the friction points for customer experiences

Design experiences based on your customer's journey

Bridge company silos to provide seamless customer engagement.

Build brand loyalty with elegant, easy-to-use apps.

Research Social media Inquiry Make appointment

Intelligent solutions to deliver maximum business value

Secure

Ensure there are no weaknesses in protection of corporate and personal data.

Mobile

Deliver information, securely, to users where and when they need it.

UX-optimized

Design user experiences to align with workflows and business processes.

Integrated

Connect productivity and line-of-business applications for efficient user experiences.

Business applications crafted for exceptional customer experiences

The DXC Eclipse team has designed, developed and implemented hundreds of custom software applications, bringing a wide range of development skills to the table. We understand how to translate your business requirements and processes into elegant, functional software solutions your employees and customers will love to use.

Our customers depend on us for time-tested methodologies, sound development expertise, quality assurance and dependable support.

Get direct access to our Business Consulting team today.

T 877.744.1360

www.dxc.technology/dxceclipse

ECL-081, October 2018