

Job Title: Advisory Consultant (Cloud)

Background:

DXC Technology is the world's leading independent, end-to-end IT services and solutions company, helping customers harness the power of innovation to thrive. We are also a leader in Digital Transformation space, looking to hire “Stars” who would like to experience large scale Digital Transformation projects to drive the Japan business. We are looking for new talent to help us through this journey of growth in Japan.

Key Responsibilities

The position of Advisory Consultant (EA/IT Modernization with Cloud) covers leading enterprise level digital transformation strategies with emerging cloud technologies. The person need to have conversation with multiple levels of client stake folders (from technologist to CxO), in order to develop or make sure client IT transformation strategy. Through making consensus (Business & IT alignment) across client stake folders, the person accelerate client digital transformation and shaping deal for DXC at the same time.

Key Requirements

- Consultancy Theory and experiences
- Communication skill to senior client management level
- Leadership and facilitation skill to make consensus across multiple stake folders
- IT technology background the past including clouds (infrastructure, application or both)
- Deep analysis and insight behavior and skill
- Better mindset to contribute community (knowledge sharing and coaching)

Preferred Qualifications / Experiences:

- Enterprise / Large deal pursuit or consultancy experiences
- Or complex emerging solution or deal structure experiences
- Much experience on cloud related transformation (shareable case study or lesson & learnt)