

Job Title: Cloud Network Expert

Background:

DXC Technology is the world's leading independent, end-to-end IT services and solutions company, helping customers harness the power of innovation to thrive. We are also a leader in Digital Transformation space, looking to hire “Stars” who would like to experience large scale Digital Transformation projects to drive the Japan business. We are looking for new talent to help us through this journey of growth in Japan.

Key Responsibilities

This position is a key support function role to fixing client network issues/concerns on clouds or “hybrid IT”. All network complex requirements and issues should be fixed when client adoption especially wider scope. The person leads how implement right network and access solution for cloud adoption or hybrid IT. Under cloud migration and cloud adoption in hybrid IT, network and security matters are very complex and cross-effective situation in most of cases. The person cooperates for alignment with clouds and security SMEs as one team.

Key Requirements

- Consultancy and design capability for virtual network on cloud platform, also connect to on-premise / hybrid IT
- Knowledge of network basics for enterprise (E.g. OSI full stack standards)
- Knowledge of major network products and services in enterprise IT market
- Knowledge of network virtualization technology and trends
- Knowledge of cloud virtual network services in major cloud platform (connectivity service, region, availability zone, VPC, VPN, etc.) on AWS, AZURE or GCP.
- Better to have knowledge of virtual appliances for network & security
- Understand importance of cross-points across cloud services, security and network in enterprise hybrid IT
- Understand enterprise client culture and behavior, have closely collaboration mindset with sales team
- Understand delivery challenge and risk by new solution adoption

Preferred Qualifications / Experiences:

- One or more security related certifications which can be effective for enterprise consulting
- Consulting experience on client IT security & policy
- Consulting experience on security solutioning for clouds or hybrid IT in enterprise segment