

Job Title: MS Dynamics 365 Specialist

Background:

DXC Technology is the world's leading independent, end-to-end IT services and solutions company, helping customers harness the power of innovation to thrive. We are also a leader in Digital Transformation space, looking to hire “Stars” who would like to experience large scale Digital Transformation projects to drive the Japan business. We are looking for new talent to help us through this journey of growth in Japan.

Key Responsibilities

Consult with clients to validate business requirements and develop software in accordance with client specifications and architectural design, and ensure solutions delivered are fit for purpose and meet client needs.

Key Requirements

- Autonomous, Multi-tasking and Flexible
- Can communicate clearly and concisely with diverse audiences, in both oral and written contexts
- Language: Japanese fluent, English business level in oral and writing is a must
- Decision maker
- Enthusiastic and “I can do” attitude.
- Team player
- 1+ years of experience in Microsoft Dynamics solutioning or implementation
- In-depth understanding of Microsoft Dynamics, including entities, workflows and configuration
- Experience of requirements gathering, functional analysis, gap-fit analysis
- Experience guiding development teams on requirements and functional specifications
- Strong documentation skills