

Job Title: Workday Support/Implementation Engineer

Background:

DXC Technology is the world's leading independent, end-to-end IT services and solutions company, helping customers harness the power of innovation to thrive. We are also a leader in Digital Transformation space, looking to hire “Stars” who would like to experience large scale Digital Transformation projects to drive the Japan business. We are looking for new talent to help us through this journey of growth in Japan.

Key Responsibilities

Provides support for activities involved with integrations, data conversion, and associated requirement gathering and testing efforts of a Workday implementation project.

Key Requirements

- Autonomous, multi-tasking and flexible
- Can communicate clearly and concisely with diverse audiences, in both oral and written contexts
- Language: Japanese fluent, English business level in oral and writing is a must.
- Decision maker
- Enthusiastic with “I can do” attitude.
- Team player
- 1+ years of experience as a Workday Consultant
- Experience in Workday HCM core concepts, including Payroll, Stock and Benefits
- Experience with gathering requirements, Gap Analysis, writing Product Requirements, Functional Specifications and Test Plan documents, systems testing and validation of test results against system requirements
- Strong documentation skills